

COALITION OF CONCERNED CANADIANS

Newsletter 40

Thanksgiving Day, Oct 14, 2024

Dear friends and supporters:

Lots has been happening in my campaign to protect children from harm. There is a toxic environment in our schools that is drawing vulnerable children who are already suffering from increasing amounts of mental distress into the Trans ideology, which is enticing them to follow a path to sterilization, hormonal damage and even bodily mutilation.

I had my first interview with a secular podcaster. In feminist Meghan Murphy's recent article about me. She says: "To my mind, every single one of Neufeld's comments is fair. Indeed, the practice of sterilizing and mutilating the bodies of minors, ensuring they will never enjoy a fulfilling sex life or be able to reproduce as adults, is child abuse."

My new Lawyer, James Kitchen began by taking a lot of time and effort to adjourn the hearing before the BC Human Rights Tribunal of the complaint from the teacher's union that I created a dangerous work environment for teachers. The teacher's union opposed the adjournment, but the Tribunal granted my lawyer's request. The hearing will now start on November 25, 2024 instead of October 21. They are determined to see me convicted of hate speech!

James Kitchen is unlike most other lawyers, as he tends to defend people who need to raise money for their legal defense. He believes that donors have a right to know how their donations are being spent. So instead of being secretive like most lawyers, he releases most legal documents and correspondence publicly. They are available on my website, BarryNeufeld.com and the <https://rightsandfreedoms.org>

James Kitchen has this to say about my case:

"Ever selfless, Barry is fighting this case to protect children. While I too care deeply about protecting children, I am also passionate about upholding free speech, as I believe freedom, justice, and democracy all depend on it. The censorship sought by the BC Teacher's Federation and enabled by the BC Human Rights Tribunal, all in the name of the new religion of diversity, equity, and inclusion, is a cancer consuming our once free and democratic society. I urge people to donate towards Barry's case so that we may hold the Tribunal accountable to the law. Individuals must have the right to speak freely and pursue truth, even if that truth offends transgender adults seeking to impart their ideology upon children with impunity."

BARRY NEUFELD FUNDRAISER

TO SUPPORT THOSE WHO FIGHT TO PROTECT OUR KIDS

Barry Neufeld is a Chilliwack school board veteran whose career spanned 27 years. He was committed to protecting parental rights that oppose woke agendas like SOGI 123 and the LGBT movements that would see children negatively impacted by puberty blocking drugs and harmful surgeries.

Barry is now facing the battle for his financial life as he is being taken to court by those who want to continue pushing these harmful agendas. Barry has the best lawyers, but needs your financial support!
